When I was in Baltimore this a.m. to be on Contact, at a little after 10, when the show went off, I phoned Bob Matthews, WBAL News, to see if he was interested. he put an Ann Hoffman on the phone. She left and came back and asked if I could be there at 11:15, the first time a photographer would be available. It was some time later. A Ricki Stofsky(?) saw me. Now ehen I entered, as it later turned out, she and a man and woman were sitting in the lobby talking. She later came back and we went into studio. She filmed sooft. It was supposed to be on 7 p.m. news. It wasn't. I didn't want to talk about personal relations with NBC, but she insisted, so I did.
